

What are some ways that you need God to meet you in this season?
Take some time and reflect on the questions below.

What are some ways that You need to know Him as the Comforter in this current season?

What are some ways that You need Him to provide in this season?

What is the Lord doing in you in this current season that He wants to use to transform you?

What are some creative ideas or solutions that the Lord is wanting to bring forth through you in this season?